WASHINGTON TOPICS

House Committee on Territories Has Favorably Reported Santa Fe Capital Location Bill.

BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS

Nomination of Attorney General McKenna to Be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court Under Consideration in the Senate.

Washington, Jan. 14.—The house committee on territories has made a favorable report on the Ferguson bill to permanently locate the capital of New Mexico at Santa Fe. The committee says a large majority of the people of New Mexico desire that the historic city shall continue to be the capital of New Mexico.

Against Corbett's Claim.
The senate committee on privileges and elections today decided to make an adverse report upon H. W. Corbett's claim to a seat in the senate from Oregon. The vote was 4 to 3 and was on partisan lines, except Senator Burrows, Republican, who was absent, but was counted upon his authority in opposition to Corbett's claim.

Session of the Senate Today.
In the senate today Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts, presented a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution providing that the 30th of April shall be substituted for the 4th of March, for the commencement and termination of the official terms of the president, vice president, senators and representatives in congress. Referred to the committee on privileges and elections.

Mr. Quay, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution, which was referred to the committee on Indian affairs, requiring the secretary of the interior to investigate the recent alleged burning to death of two Seminole Indians by a mob in Oklahoma Territory and to report thereon. The resolution appropriated $25,000 for the investigation and the apprehension and punishment of the guilty persons.

Mr. Lodge, (Mass.) offered a resolution, which was agreed to, calling upon the secretary of agriculture to supply the senate with information as to the amount of sugar imported into the United States; the amount of beet sugar produced in the United States; with what sugar, imported or domestic, beet sugar comes into competition; and what effect Hawaiian sugar has or can have upon beet sugar production in the United States.

Nomination of Judge McKenna.
The senate took up the nomination of Attorney General McKenna to be justice of the Supreme court immediately upon going into executive session today, but, as it was made apparent after a few minutes' discussion that the nomination could not be disposed of today, action was postponed.

Session of the House Today.
The house managers decided not to proceed with the consideration of the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill today, but to give the day to the consideration of private bills. This was done to avert the possibility of precipitating a sensational Cuban debate.

The resolution, accepting the invitation of the government of Norway to participate in the international fisheries exposition at Bergen in 1898, was called up.

Mr. Cannon, chairman of the appropriations committee, said that the expedition question in congress was running wild.
Mr. Simpkins, (Rep. Mass.) called attention to the fact that, in Norway, second to no country in fisheries, accepted our invitation to participate at the Philadelphia and Chicago expositions. He contended that common courtesy and decency demanded that we accept this invitation.

The resolution was adopted.
Nomination sent to the senate.
The president today sent these nominations to the senate: Consul—George W. Dickinson, of New York, at Acapulco, Mexico; Louis Goldsmith, of New Hampshire, at Lagunay, Venezuela.

Awards to British Subjects.
The president today submitted to congress the awards and the report of the commission, appointed under the terms of the treaty of 1896, to adjust the claims of British subjects for losses sustained through the seizure of sealing vessels in Behring sea. The president recommends that the amount necessary to satisfy the award of the commissioners, $473,151.26, be appropriated.

Confirmed as Postmaster of Denver.
Among the nominations confirmed by the senate today was that of ex-Senator Tabor, of Colorado, to be postmaster of Denver.

King Fisher, O. ## INDIA'S FINANCIAL MATTERS.

Bad Financial State of Affairs in the Land of the Hindoos—Trade Crippled and Government Bothered.

Calcutta, Jan. 14.—Sir James Westland, the finance minister of the Indian council, introduced a bill today, providing for the issue of currency notes in India against gold. Mr. Arthur, under secretary of state in London, in behalf of the banks and chambers of commerce, has endorsed the measure.
The finance minister said, that the Indian money market was experiencing a period of extreme stringency and that the local resources were unable to supply the demand of trade. The scarcity was due to the banks remitting their capital home and keeping as little as possible in India. This policy was adopted before the legislation of 1893 was had, and was not in consequence of that legislation. But while they were advancing toward the attainment of the standard of a 16d rupee, this success militated against the transfer of sterling capital to India in exchange. The banks must operate upon commercial principles and no blame was attached to them.

Sir James Westland denied the allegation that the government was holding money in order to starve commerce and force an exchange; but recent demands on the government had been so heavy, it had been obliged to ask the secretary of state to intern drawings of money. The amount on hand was ample to ensure the convertibility of Indian notes, therefore there was no risk from a currency point of view.

Special to the New Mexican.

Albuquerque, Jan. 13.—James Maloney, of Gallup, who, while laboring under mental aberration, recently shot his brother-in-law, James Barney, was brought here by his physician, Dr. Hinch, and was tried before Judge Crumacker on the charge of insanity.

At the earnest solicitation of Maloney's wife and friends, who declared that they would remove him to a private sanitarium in California, and at the expressed belief of Dr. Hinch that his patient's trouble was due to a residence in too high an altitude, and that he would recover amid more congenial surroundings, Maloney was turned over to these friends. Barney is recovering from his wounds.

Mrs. A. M. Swan, who has been quite ill, is recovering.
The G. K. Warren post, G. A. R., has installed the following officers, who will serve during 1898: F. C. J. M. Moore; S. V. C. A. J. Armstrong; J. V. C. L. Everett; Clark; chairman, Thos. Harwood; Q. M. M. White; surgeon, G. F. Durrant; C. G. A. Steele; C. D. L. Jackson.

The Women's Relief corps, No. 1, ladies' auxiliary to the above, has also installed officers as follows: Commander, Mrs. Rebecca Granger; senior vice commander, Mrs. Alabine Carey; junior vice commander, Mrs. Mattie Butler; chaplain, Mrs. Martha Stevens; treasurer, Mrs. Kate Harsch; conductress, Mrs. Eliza Drury; assistant, Mrs. Emma Horton; guard, Mrs. Alice Isherwood; assistant, Mrs. Hester Rutherford.

This society has been in existence about 14 years and has 23 members. It meets on the first and third Monday evenings of each month.
The annual election of officers of the Non-Sectarian Relief society, held here on Thursday morning, resulted in the re-election of President, Mrs. W. W. McClelland; vice president, Mrs. C. W. Clancy; secretary, Mrs. John F. Pearce; and Mrs. G. W. Harrison as treasurer, and a relief committee comprising Mesdames Fox, Clancy, C. W. Kunz, Francis Crosson. This society was organized about six years ago with no other in view but to assist the needy and distressed, either for those within the borders of the city or strangers who, through sickness or other unavoidable circumstances, are forced to seek public aid. Their good offices are administered so unobtrusively as to remove, almost entirely, the sting felt by those who apply for aid, and they are compelled to seek public charity. Their grand work receives a small financial recognition from the city. As the name implies, it is not connected with any particular religious denomination, having in view only the acts of christianity by which Christ himself practiced and advocated.

The society now has about 30 members. Among those who have been active in the society's good work almost since its beginning are: Mrs. McClelland, Mrs. Clancy, Mrs. Kunz and Mrs. Pearce.
Samuel B. Dunlap, aged about 60 years, and a familiar figure on the streets here, died at the Grand Central hotel late Tuesday night. His demise was due to consumption, an ailment of long standing with him. The old man came here from Colorado about four years ago. Though he had a few confidants among friends here, he was never very communicative concerning his relatives, if he had any, so nothing is known of them outside of Robert Dunlap, presumably a brother, who is living at Redlands, Cal. He has been very active in his relatives' death. A final disposition of the remains await a message from this heir. Mr. Dunlap was apparently well-to-do, having large mining interests in the Cochiti region. The team attached to the delivery wagon of Trotter & Bell, grocers, ran away from in front of a Highways' residence, while the driver, Roy Freese, was engaged inside, and, after almost encircling the town in their mad gallop, brought up in a tangle with a telegraph post on First street. The wagon was wrecked and the groceries distributed over the ground. Though there were many articles on the streets, the runaway team collided with nothing until it struck the post that brought it to an abrupt stop.

Industrial Commissioner Davis, of the Santa Fe system, was in town yesterday, and made glad the hearts of many by intimating that the construction of a handsome new railway station at this point was not as far distant in the future as some might think.

General Lee Reports Much Excitement and Further Attacks on Havana Newspaper Offices.

RIGID PRESS CENSORSHIP

An Edict Published Forbidding More Than Four Persons to Gather in Groups on the Streets—De Lome's Advice.

Washington, Jan. 14.—A telegram received from Consul General Lee, this morning, reported much excitement and further attacks on the newspaper offices in which the soldiers participated. General Lee added that he did not anticipate another outbreak; would be surprised at one. None of the disturbances, he reported, had been directed against the United States or American citizens.

The president will not send a warship to Cuba at present.

Rigid Press Censorship.

Havana, Jan. 14.—A decree has been published, prohibiting the publication in the daily newspapers of cable dispatches, without a previous censorship, and 12 hours notice of their receipt. In addition, in future, the postoffice here will detain national and foreign newspapers, not having been previously censored.

Another edict will be published shortly forbidding the gathering in groups of more than four persons.

Calm and Peaceful in Havana.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Perfect calm prevails in Havana according to dispatches received by Senator De Lome, the Spanish minister, today.

THE SPERRY BILL.

Delegate Ferguson Opposes the Bill to Repeal the New Mexico Insurance Law and Secures a Hearing for January 26.

A Washington special to the Denver News says: Delegate Ferguson, of New Mexico, is out after the Sperry bill to annul the tax on insurance companies which has been imposed by the New Mexico legislative assembly. The origin of this bill is plainly evidenced in its introduction by a member within whose district are located the largest insurance companies in the United States. Mr. Sperry, the author of the bill, and Delegate Ferguson were both before the committee on territories this afternoon. Mr. Sperry for a favorable report on the bill, and the delegate insisting on having a full hearing on the merits of the measure. The latter was successful in the effort to secure this hearing, and it was set for Wednesday, the 26th instant.

WHITE OAKS GOSSIP.

Interesting Letter Concerning Happenings in Lincoln County's Prosperous Mining Camp from the New Mexican's Special Correspondent.

Special Correspondence New Mexican.

White Oaks, Jan. 10.—M. S. Tallafra, of the firm of Tallafra Bros., merchants, has sold out his interest in the business and the firm has merged into the Tallafra Mercantile company.
Mr. Tallafra and his family will return to Watseka, Ills. He was formerly one of the editors and publishers of the Watseka Republican, and has been offered the position again.

"Stan," as he is familiarly known here, has been an indefatigable worker in the Republican ranks and will be greatly missed. He is now serving his second term as chairman of the county Republican central committee. Through his excellent management and energy the Republicans have succeeded in capturing a fair proportion of the county offices in this formerly Democratic stronghold.

The senior member of the firm, Jones Tallafra, is one of the old timers of White Oaks, having located here in 1880, and has built up an enviable reputation as an honored citizen and successful business man. Jno. H. Canning, formerly with the post trader at Fort Stanton, is a member of the new firm, which starts out with largely increased capital and scope of business. Already they have established branch houses at Nogal and Jicarilla.

Sidney M. Parker and wife started for California on the 8th. Mr. Parker's close confinement to business and a recent sickness so impaired his health as to make it necessary for him to take a rest. They go to the Pacific coast, where, it is hoped, he will be benefited by the "spicy breezes wafted from Ceylon's isle."

Mrs. C. L. Pearman, whose late husband was one of the former business men of White Oaks, has just returned to her home in Illinois, after spending the summer and fall in this delightful climate with her sister, Mrs. Gus Schinzing.

Wharton & Haley, of the White Oaks Eagle, are preparing to start a paper at Nogal, one of the mining towns near White Oaks, in order to occupy the field there for the purpose of speculating in futures, no doubt. The new venture has not yet been given a name, but when it is once hatched and fully fledged it will probably be able to scream equal to its parent bird, the Eagle, and keep us posted as to the affairs in that promising mining camp. It is needless to remark that politically it will disseminate news from a Democratic standpoint.

The new shaft in the Old Abe mine is now completed down to the 800 foot level. About 30 feet of drifting remains to be done, when communication with the old workings will be complete. The company will soon begin operating the mine again, and the ponderous tread of their great mill crushing out the precious metal will be a most welcome sound.

HONORABLY ACQUITTED.

William McRae, Probate Clerk of San Juan County, Exonerated from Charge of Collecting Illegal Fees.

Mr. William McRae, the capable and painstaking probate clerk of San Juan county, who was yesterday honorably acquitted in the United States district court of the charge of collecting excessive fees in a homestead entry case, left for his home in prosperous San Juan county this morning over the D. & R. G. railroad.

It appears from the evidence brought out in court that, about two years ago, Mr. McRae, in his capacity of probate clerk, took final proof for the United States land office in this city in the matter of the homestead entry of Francisco A. Atencio, of San Juan county, and was paid $17.50 in full for the fees and costs in the premises. Out of this amount he paid the San Juan County Index the usual publication fee of $7, the land office fee of $6, his own fee of $3.50, and the cost of blanks, registration fees and postage, $1.

The money was sent to him from Largo by one J. H. Thiehoff, acting for Atencio, and he returned a lump receipt for the same to Largo. Whereupon Thiehoff appeared before the United States grand jury in this city last year, and, upon the sworn representation that Mr. McRae had appropriated to his own use all of the $17.50 except the land office fees, secured the latter's indictment for collecting excessive fees. Mr. Atencio, the person chiefly concerned, made no complaint whatever.

As soon as Mr. McRae had an opportunity to produce the facts in open court he conclusively established the fact that he had promptly paid the publication fee of $7, the charge of withholding which was the real cause of complaint, to Fred Bunker, the duly authorized agent of the then publisher of the Index, E. M. Gibson, and held receipts both from Bunker and Gibson for the amount. Upon this showing Judge Laughlin instructed the jury to acquit the defendant.

It may be added that the trial also brought out the fact that the person, Thiehoff, was not actually the publisher of the Index, but that he lived at Largo for some time under the alias of Jones, and that he is wanted by Sheriff Charles Bell, of Brown county, Tex., for unlawfully removing mortgaged property.

Mr. McRae says that the United States offered to discontinue the case if he paid the costs, but, feeling that he had done nothing wrong in the premises, he declined to do anything that could be construed into a confession of guilt. Besides the costs of the prosecution, amounting to $200, furnished 300 other substantial reasons why he did not accept the proposition.

There are over 1,300 head of cattle being wintered and fed for beef on the La Plata this winter, and almost the entire hay crop of that prosperous valley has been sold and will be fed by spring.

The beet sugar factory at Eddy closed down on Friday night for the season of 1897, having manufactured nearly 1,000 tons of superior granulated sugar.

Work on the big ditch above Aztec has been suspended for the present on account of the frozen condition of the ground. It is the intention of those in charge of the work to resume operations about the 15th inst. with a much larger force than has heretofore been employed, says the San Juan County Index.

Assistant General Manager W. G. Hamilton, of the Pecos Irrigation & Improvement company, has put about 2,000 head of sheep on full feed of pulp from the beet factory. Mr. Hamilton believes in wintering his sheep in good shape so the spring crop of lambs will be good, says the Eddy Current.

He and a Mexican were hunting together in the mountains, when the Mexican's rifle was accidentally discharged, the bullet striking Morgan's cheek-bone. ## LAS VEGAS NOTES.

Mrs. Solis Chavez, aged 50 years, died at La Manga on Tuesday. The funeral took place from there today.

The government thermometer registered 3 degrees above zero on Tuesday night. Few people knew it was so cold.

Miss Wilson, who came here some time ago a confirmed invalid, and who has been stopping at the Montezuma, is now almost entirely recovered, thanks to our fine climate, says the Examiner.

The new brick chimney at the asylum is finished. The carpenters are making good progress on the roof of the normal school building, and work progresses on smaller structures as though it were May.

Two layers of brown sandstone are to be added to the present fence of white stone around the Plaza park. The old wooden fence will then be removed and the appearance of the park much improved.

The wife of Antonio Lucero gave birth to a daughter about 6 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Mr. Lucero, one of the most popular as well as laborious of the native citizens of New Mexico, is to be congratulated upon the interesting family which are growing up like olive branches about his table, remarks the Optic.

The entertainment committee of the Jewish fair, which begins at the Duncan opera house on February 14, of which Max Nordhaus is chairman, is straining every nerve to have the fair on a grand scale, and to surpass anything ever attempted in the line of entertainment at any previous fair held in this city.

The Optic has not yet received any suggestions as to the handiwork lady in this section for the composite picture, the particulars of which have already been set forth. It is to be understood that Las Vegas is destitute of female loveliness, alike among the Anglo-American and the Spanish-American families? This is not to be thought of. Let suggestions come in.
